Ms. Lu Thi Tiep

> Not only learn from marketing professionals, but also network with other departments to gain a broader understanding of various leadership styles, and how transformational leadership operates in different fields. Gaining insights from external viewpoints allows for the discovery of novel ideas and faster problem-solving.

Ms. Ho Nguyen Ly Ly
PSO MBA classmate

> You should be more specific and detailed to understand each step you will take. Clearly separate whether you need feedback from those around you specifically regarding marketing or leadership style.
